

FIRST ARP CHURCH

2010 Soccer (co-ed)

It's time to get ready for soccer at First ARP Church!

Through the avenue of sports, our goal is to help children:

- Gain self confidence through learning new skills
- Grow in their social interaction with other children through play and practice
- Develop teamwork and sportsmanship regardless of a game's outcome
- Grow in spiritual maturity and develop Christian character

How can I sign-up?

You can mail in your registration form and money to:

First ARP Sports Ministry, 317 S. Chester St., Gastonia, NC 28052

Or drop the form off at the main office of First ARP Church at the same address.

What about uniforms?

For Inter-Church League participants, a jersey will be provided with your team's name. When you sign-up please indicate the size of jersey needed. Jerseys will be passed out in practice before the beginning of the season.

When do we begin practice?

Practices will begin in August. The coaches will set up the day and time for practices. Most practices will occur weekday evenings and last one hour or less. If you have questions about practice times, please contact your coach.

When do games begin?

Games will begin in early September. Games will be completed by the end of October. All games will be on Saturdays when possible. Games will be held at Southminster Presbyterian or at First Baptist on Union Road.

City League Teams (our 7/8 team) will play schedules as determined by the City League Officials. Most games will be played at Martha Rivers Park. They will be required to provide a birth certificate as well.
