The Parables of Christ

Taught by Wes McMurray

"The Parables of Christ" study on Wednesday nights will continue through May 6th. Jesus was the greatest storyteller of all time. Theologian, Mark Hopkins rightly said, "Certainly, no revolution that has ever taken place in society can be compared to that which has been produced by the words of Jesus Christ." Come join us as we study these revolutionary, life-changing stories together!

Love and Respect

Taught by Tom Williamson

A wife has one driving need—to feel loved. When that need is met, she is happy. A husband has one driving need—to feel respected. When that need is met, he is happy. This elective is based on several of the actual seminar sessions presented by Dr. Emerson and Sarah Eggerichs. He asks the question, "What do you want for your marriage? Please note this class will run from 6:15-7:30 pm.

The Book of James

Taught by Eddie Spencer

During the last four weeks of our study of the book of James, we will return to three topics and dig deep as it relates to a lifestyle of humility (3:13), living without worry (4:13-16) and a lifestyle of patience (5:7-11). Join us for this practical and very humbling series.

Name: _____

I Kings

Taught by Bill Cain

During the next 4 weeks, we will continue our study in I Kings looking at Solomon's life and the divided Kingdom. We will see how God's chosen people react as sin builds in their midst and judgment looms on the horizon. Join us as we open God's word which has a timely message for us in our daily lives.
